	SPECIAL NOTES
	All dates are set and will be adhered to as best as possible although due to unforeseen circumstances these date may change.
	If you are unable to make any of the above dates all sessions will be recorded and sent although It will be best if you can attend coaching calls live.
	Once the group forms we may look at days and start times to best work with the group.
	Due to the business of December I have combined the last calls to one day to ensure we can all complete the sessions live together.
